is not equal to the demand. Even so with Lemp's product. Located at St. Louis he established one of the largest breweries in the world, and yet every year the capacity has to be increased.

CITY COUNCIL HELD MEETING

PASSED ORDINANCE GRANTING
FRANCHISE FOR A NEW RAIL-ROAD FROM HERE TO ANDALUSIA.

A special meeting of the City Council was held yesterday at noon, when a transfer of the railroad franchise granted Hoke Smith and others, was consummated. Mayor Welles presided, and a quorum of members was present.

The new ordinance transferring this franchise to F. C. Brent, Jno. C. Avery and others, was read the second time, having been introduced at a previous meeting, when the objects of the projectors of the road were explained. After the second reading an adjournment was taken and another meeting convened within fifteen minutes, when the ordinance was read the third and last time and passed. It was necessary, in order to make the ordinance legal that there be two meetings, so the council had to adjourn the first meeting and then later hold a second.

The ordinance is the one granted to Hoke Smith and A. B. Steele some months ago, giving them the right to construct a railroad from Andalusia to Pensacola and also certain rights and privileges along the streets of Pensacola. They failed to accept the same, and local capitalists have taken the matter up and will build the road. It has been stated that surveyors are now in the field and that the road will be constructed at an early date, or at least that work will commence at once.

THE CARNIVAL ASSOCIATION

HELD ANNUAL MEETING LAST NIGHT AND ELECTED OFFI-CERS FOR THE YEAR.

An interesting meeting of the stockholders of the Carnival Association was held last night in the office of the McDavid-Hyer Co., when a board of twelve directors was elected to serve during the coming year.

The meeting was a very harmonious one, and afterwards the directors held a session and elected officers. The success of the recent Carnival, when such a grand display was given, was a cause of general congratulation and those now in charge will endeavor to repeat this success at the next Mardi Gras. The list of officers is as follows:

President—Walker Ingraham.
Vice-President—T. A. Jennings.
Treasurer—Ed. Forschheimer.
Secretary—Chas. W. Merritt.
Board of Directors—Walker Ingraham, Henry Hyer, Chas. W. Merritt, Ed. Gale Quinn, Ed. Forschheimer, W. C. Jones, J. B. Nixon, C. F. Zeek, J. L. Leonard, F. T. Bingham, T. A. Jennings and Chas. H. Turner.

A Good Suggestion.

Mr. C. B. Wainwright of Lemon City, Fla., has written the manufacturers that much better results are obtained from the use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in cases of pains in the stomach, colic and cholera morbus by taking it in water as hot as can be drunk. That when taken in this way the effect is double in rapidity. "It seems to get at the right spot instantly," he says. For sale by all druggists.

RECORD-BREAKER.

Largest sale of cigars ever made in Pensacola. The Lewis Bear Co. recently purchased one million Little Minister Cigars. The demand for these goods is something phenomenal.

Having Fun After Death.

A humorist in Japan who jested all his life told his friends when he was dying that his body was not to be washed after death, but was to be taken at once to the family temple to be cremated. When he died his instructions were followed. As soon as it was set on fire the mourners were astonished by several loud explosions. At first they were inclined to take to their heels, but curiosity got the better of fear, and careful inspection showed that the humorist had stowed away a large number of firecrackers about his person before his death.

The Bulldog's Nose.

Froude told Dr. Boyd an interesting little anecdote of an Oxford undergraduate who was asked in an examination in Paley's "Evidences" if he could mention a solitary instance of the divine goodness which he had discovered for himself. "Yes," he replied, "the conformation of the nose of the bulldog. Its nose is so retracted that it can hang on to the bull and yet breathe freely. But for this it would soon have to let go."

The Ideal.

It is in making endless additions to self, in the endless expansion of its powers, in the endless growth in wisdom and beauty, that the spirit of the human race finds its ideal. To reach this ideal culture is an indispensable aid, and that is the true value of culture.

Appearances Deceptive.

Mr. Headstall—That horse you bought yesterday is a vicious looking animal. Is he kind? Mr. Cropper—Kind? I should think so. Why, when he came out of the stable he stood upon his hind legs and tried to embrace me.—Puck.

Work and Worry.

New York Cotton.

New York, May 5.—The cotton market opened firm at an advance of 3 to 12 points in response to much better cables than looked for and bull support. Shorts were good buyers at the opening, but the weather map was again favorable and offerings were fairly liberal with the result that the market, after improving a point or two on the opening level, ruled irregular within a range of 4 or 5 points. Business was active at first, but soon quieted down around the opening figures.

New York Stocks.

New York, May 5.—Opening prices showed some slight recoveries from yesterday's depression in spite of the weak tone of the London market this morning. Declines at other points indicated that sentiment was still hesitating. Consolidated Gas rebounded 4½ on the defeat of the 80-cent gas bill at Albany. The rise in Locomotive reached 2 points. Northwestern 1½. St. Paul 1½. Metropolitan Street Railway ¼, and Union Pacific, Louisville and Nashville and Tennessee Coal a point. There were large fractional gains in other cases. Amongst the declines, that of 1½ in Pacific Mail was most conspicuous. Kansas and Texas and Ontario and Western were down large fractional.

New York Cotton Futures.

New York, May 5.—Cotton futures opened very firm. May 7.47, June 7.30 bid, July 7.41, August 7.49, September 7.50, October 7.61, December 7.69, January 7.73, March 7.84.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the Best
"I have been using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and want to say that it is the best cough medicine I have ever taken," says Geo. L. Chubb, a merchant of Harlem, Mich. There is no question about its being the best, as it will cure a cough or cold in less time than any other treatment. It should always be kept in the house ready for instant use, for a cold can be cured in much less time when promptly treated. For sale by all druggists.

We Are All Queer.
Call a girl a chick and she smiles; call a woman a hen and she bows. Call a young woman a witch and she is teased; call an old woman a witch and she is indignant. Call a girl a kitten and she rather likes it; call a woman a cat and she hates you. Women are queer.

If you call a man a gay dog it will flatter him; call him a pup, a bounder or a cur and he will try to alter the map of your face. He doesn't mind being called a bull or a bear, yet he will object to being mentioned as a calf or a cub. Men are queer too.

A Troubled Conscience.
"I had a horrible dream last night," said Huddleston when he came down to breakfast the other morning.
"What was it?" asked his wife.
"I dreamed that I was in purgatory and was made to do all the things I had told my friends I would do if I were in their places."—Town and Country.

The Contrary Dog.
"Can dogs find their way home from a distance?" is a question frequently asked. It's according to the dog. If it is one you want to get rid of he can find his way back from Africa. If it is a valuable one he is apt to get lost if he goes round the corner.

Knew the Game.
"Aren't you carrying things with a high hand?"
"Sometimes it's a high hand," answered the South American president. "and then again sometimes it's only a bluff."—Washington Star.
